

Daily Briefing

FOOD / BEVERAGE

By: Joe Guy Collier
Saturday, May 31

Saladworks chain headed to Atlanta

Saladworks, a Pennsylvania-based chain of fast-casual salad restaurants, has signed an agreement with RAMM Alliance LLC, also based in Pennsylvania, to open 10 locations in metro Atlanta.

The five-year agreement, announced Friday, allows RAMM Alliance to develop Saladworks locations in Atlanta in Peachtree Center and Buckhead, and also in Marietta, Roswell, Alpharetta, Duluth, Buford, Lawrenceville, Athens and Peachtree City.

The first two locations will open within a year, but the sites have not been determined. Saladworks has 92 locations in eight states and Washington, D.C.