Hope Cohen, host of CN8's "The Chef's Kitchen," has created the Avocadolicious Salad for Saladworks which, in its area locations, will give a free one to any secretary or administrative professional from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. April 23, which is Secretaries Day, or Administrative Professionals Day, as some call it. AP's must present a business card when they order. The salad is on the menu now through June 30. In exchange for the recipe, Saladworks is giving $5,000 to Cohen's charity of choice, the Ronald McDonald Camp in the Poconos, for children who have or had cancer.
